“All things are possible for God.” Jesus follows a series of challenging pronouncements with this line- some of the most consoling words that he utters in the Gospels. As we celebrate Mass today, recall the times that you have had to rely on God because you didn't know if you could manage on your own. For us human beings on our own, it may well be impossible, but for God, all things are possible.

Solomon makes a wise decision in today's first reading, choosing wisdom over power or riches. He realizes that those things are temporary, whereas wisdom is lasting. In the Gospel, Jesus teaches the rich man the same lesson, noting the incompatibility of wealth and the kingdom of God. This is our challenge today. How are our temporary possessions obstacles to our mission and ultimate goal? Can the “two-edged sword” that the writer of the Hebrews invokes separate what lasts from what doesn't?

“Heavenly Father...give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living.”

Questions and Answers

ABOUT OUR FAITH

Q. Is the pope always infallible?

A. It is only when the pope speaks officially “ex Cathedra” (i.e. from the chair), as the supreme shepherd and teacher OF the universal church, and TO the universal church, proclaiming by a definitive act some doctrine of faith or morals– it is only then that the pope speaks infallibly.

When a pope speaks in this way, his teaching is immune from error and does not depend on the consent of the Church; it is a gift to the Church from God. There have been a few infallible teachings. Since 1870, the only doctrine that has proclaimed infallibly is the Assumption of Mary into heaven. This pronouncement was made by Pope Pius XII on November 1, 1950, after consultation with the bishops of the world.

FATHER, WE THANK THEE

Father, we thank Thee:

For peace within our favored land,
For plenty from Thy bounteous hand,
For means to give to those in need,
For grace to help in thought and deed.
For faith to walk, our hands in Thine,
For truth to know Thy law divine,
For strength to work with voice and pen,
For love to serve our fellow men,
For light the goal ahead to see,
For life to use alone for Thee,
Father, we thank Thee. ~ Grenville Kleiser~

Poster in a Catholic Church in France;

“When you enter this church it may be possible that you hear “the call of God”. However, it is unlikely that He will call you on your mobile.

Thank you for turning off your phones. If you want to talk to God, enter, choose a quiet place and talk to Him.

If you want to see Him, send Him a text while driving.

Our Lady's Oct. 2nd message to Mirjana near the Blue Cross on Apparition Hill:

"Dear children, I am calling you to be courageous and to not grow weary, because even the smallest good- the smallest sign of love- conquers evil which is all the more visible. My children, listen to me so that good may overcome, so that you may come to know the love of my Son. This is the greatest happiness- the hands of my Son that embrace, of Him who loves the soul, of Him who has given Himself for you and is always giving Himself anew in the Eucharist, of Him who has the words of eternal life. To come to know His love, to follow in His footsteps, means to have a wealth of spirituality. This is the wealth which gives good feelings and sees love and goodness everywhere. Apostles of my love, my children, be like the rays of the sun which with the warmth of my Son's love warm everyone around them. My children, the world needs apostles of love; the world needs much prayer, but prayer spoken with the heart and soul and not only pronounced with the lips. My children, long for holiness but in humility, in the humility which permits my Son to do that which He desires through you. My children, your prayers, your words, thoughts and actions- all of this either opens or closes the doors to the Kingdom of Heaven for you. My Son showed you the way and gave you hope, and I am consoling and encouraging you because, my children, I had come to know pain, but I had faith and hope. Now I have the reward of life in the Kingdom of my Son. Therefore, listen to me, have courage and do not grow weary. Thank you."

October

Month of the Holy Rosary

The month of October is traditionally the month of the rosary. In honor of this devotion we will be gathering each Wednesday evening in October at 6:30PM before the Statue of the Holy Family.. The Wednesday night Rosary will be prayed for the protection of the unborn and for an end to abortion.

We also offer another opportunity to pray the Holy Rosary after the 9:00am Sunday Mass during the month of October. The Sunday morning Rosary will be prayed for our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and for all the good and holy priests and bishops who shepherd us here on earth. Let us pray that our Mother will crush the head of the serpent who desires to destroy our Church from inside and outside. Join us in our outdoor Rosary Procession following the 9am Mass and held each Sunday during October at the same time.

This is a great opportunity to meet your fellow parishioners and to pray to Our Lady. Please plan on joining us and bring a friend!!
